The first layer is a really thick layer of coffee mousse that's covered in thin crust of crunchy caramelized crushed cashews or you can just call it cashew praline and mocha chiffon cake. That's right! It's so soft, very creamy, and taste the bitterness of caffeine that instantly makes you feel alert. The bitterness after a few bites and chews gets washed away by the sweet caramel and peanut crunch.

Heavenly Sweetness Of Brownies And Whipped Cream

The bottom layers consist of thick whipped cream and brownies. There's also a crunchy layer of cashew praline on top of the whipped cream. When I took a single bite, it's one of the best sensations of sweetness I've ever tasted in my entire life. The texture feels like a soft fluffy cloud of sugar with fudgy and chewy chocolate cake underneath.
